Hello Friends,

What a month August was. I can't remember an August that was so cool and had so much rain. I was having a hard time finding the lawn dry enough to mow, when I had the time to do it. I heard that we received seven inches of rain this month in some areas. I'm so grateful for the rain that we have received, it has made the Panhandle so green in August when usually it is light brown and dry. However, we need to pray for the coast where they just got a year's worth of rain in just a few days. I heard there will be areas that the flood water will not be back to normal levels until October due to the amount of water flowing from other areas.

I hope everyone had a wonderful Labor Day weekend this last weekend. We had a good time with family at the lake for the weekend, even though there were a couple that were unable to make the trip due to accidents in August. Our littlest Grandchild, Brinley broke her left arm while jumping on a trampoline with her mother. My mother got a stress fracture on her right ankle which we still have no idea how or what she did. We missed them there, but we are glad they will be able to heal from their accidents and be back to normal in 4-5 weeks. Please pray for all who have injuries and also for the people that are taking care of those with injuries.

Personal Comment: When I see these demonstrators attacking people and destroying property I wonder what is going on. It seems to me the inmates have control of the asylum. I'm all for peaceful demonstration, but when they start hurting other innocent people and destroying property they need to be stopped and held accountable. We need to take control at these protests and make it clear we will not accept this behavior any more. If we don't, I'm really afraid the violence will increase like we saw in North Carolina this last month. It does not help to have both sides of a heated protest to be in the same area. Or how about not allowing the groups that have been tied to the violence to be able to get the permit to protest. I know it does not help anyone's cause when property gets damaged and innocent people get hurt. Let's pray we can all talk about our differences in a peaceful manner and speak out about those who want to hurt others and destroy property. God Bless America!!

I would like to hear from you. Please send any comments to me at jerryj@gssifloors.com. I promise I will respond to them as soon as possible.

We all here at Quality Carpets & Flooring would like to remind you of the Holidays in September: September 4th Labor Day.

Respectfully,
Jerry D. Johnson

Flooring History

The first carpets were actually created thousands of years ago. 5000 B.C. to be exact.

And although the woven fabrics were primarily used as wall or table coverings until the rise of the Persian rug in the 17th-century, they are still one of the oldest flooring options still used today, according to Discount Flooring Depot.

George, the farmer, had so many children that he ran out of names. So he started calling his kids after something around his farm.

It was the first day of September and the first day the children had gone to their new school. The teacher greeted the children and asked each child their name. When he got to one of the farmer George's sons, the boy replied, 'Wagon Wheel.'

The teacher said, 'I need your real name boy, to which the lad replied, 'It's Wagon Wheel, sir....Really.'

The teacher, rather annoyed rejoined, 'All right young man, take yourself right down to the Principal's office this minute.'

The youngster pushed himself out of his chair, turned to his sister and said, 'C'mon, 'Chicken Feed', he ain't gonna believe you, either.'
